ORDER

Bombay Electricity (Emergency Powers) Act, 1946.

No. 3002/38.- Whereas the Government of Bombay is of opinion that for maintaining the supply or securing the equitable distribution of electrical energy by the Nadiad Electric Supply Company Limited (hereafter called the said Company), it is necessary and expedient so to impose restrictions on the supply of electrical energy and to prohibit the reconnection of the supply by the said Company;

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of section 5 of the Bombay Electricity (Emergency Powers) Act, 1946 (Bom XX of 1946), the Government of Bombay is hereby pleased to direct that, notwithstanding anything contained in the Indian Electricity Act 1910, or in the license granted thereunder to the said Company or in any contract or agreement or in any requisition, the said Company --

(1) shall not comply, except with the permission of the Provincial Government with --

(a) the provisions of any contract, agreement or requisition (whether made before or after the date of this Order) for the supply (other than the resumption of a supply), or an increase in the supply, of electrical energy to any person;

(b) any requisition for the resumption of a supply to a consumer after a period of six months from the date of its discontinuance; or

(c) any requisition for the resumption of a supply made within six months of its ~~supply made within six months of its dis-~~ discontinuance, where the requisitioning consumer was not himself the consumer of the supply at the time of its discontinuance;

(2) shall not comply with any requisition for municipal purposes involving (otherwise than any by way of replacement) any new works or additions to or alterations of works already installed.

By order of the Governor of Bombay,

Secretary to Government.
